From Saturday Auguſt 17, to Tueſday Auguſt 20, 1751.

Kenſington, Auguſt 20.

THE following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by his Grace been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do, with unfeign'd Joy, congratulate your Majeſty on the ſafe Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and the Birth of a Princeſs.

The Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government can only riſe in their Eſtimate from a Proſpect of their Continuance—And that Proſpect is enlarg'd to us by the Birth of this Princeſs, as it has added to the Number of the many other Royal Pledges, heretofore ſprung from you, for our future Security.

Every Increaſe of your Family muſt be a Circumſtance of the higheſt Satisfaction to your Subjects, eſpecially as they ſee how equally your paternal Care is ſhar'd between your Offſpring and your People—You have given us many Inſtances of this your Goodneſs, but amongſt them, none more conſpicuous, than that wiſe Proviſion (ſchem'd and made perfect by you) whereby unexperienced Youth will be guided and directed in the Government of your Kingdoms by the Maxims of ſound Policy, and the true Intereſt of the People preſerv'd in the tender Years of an Infant Succeſſor when it ſhall pleaſe Heaven to afflict us with the Loſs of you.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed this 29th Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty one.

Petersbourg, Aug. 1. The Number of Forces now on Foot in this Empire, that are ready to take the Field upon any Emergency, amount, according to a Liſt lately ſent to Court, to 200,000 effective Men, 160,000 of which are Foot, and 40,000 Horſe, beſides Calmucks, Coſſacks, and the Militia of the Country. Major General Brown, Son-in-Law of the late Field Marſhal Count Laſcy, and the Count de Brigly, Commander of the Troops quartered in Eaſthonia, are both ſolliciting their Diſcharge from this Service, the latter on Account of his great Age and bad State of Health. A Courier is arrived here from Conſtantinople, by whoſe Diſpatches we learn, that the Porte has ſent new Orders to the Kans of Crimea and Budziack, to take eſpecial Care that the Tartars conduct themſelves in ſuch a Manner, as that the Subjects of the Ruſſian Empire, bordering upon them, have not the leaſt Cauſe to complain of their Behaviour.

Baſtia, Aug. 3. The Deputies of the ſeveral Communities of this Iſland being aſſembled at San Fiorenzo, purſuant to Summonſes which were ſent to them for that Purpoſe, the Chevalier de Chauvelin and the Marqueſs de Curſay communicated to them a new Regulation for eſtabliſhing the Tranquillity of this Country; and, after the ſame had been taken into Conſideration, the Deputies returned for Anſwer, that there were ſome of the Articles liable to Objections, however they would lay them before their Communities, and do all in their Power to ſupport them.

Plaiſance, Aug. 5. The extreme dry Weather we have had for ſome Time paſt in this Country, having greatly damaged all the Fruits of the Earth, publick Prayers are at length put up in all the Churches of this Dutchy for wet Weather. The Court is to continue at Sala till the Middle of October next, and is then to return to Parma. The Infanta Dutcheſs advances happily in her Pregnancy. Cardinal Alberoni has conſiderably augmented the Revenues of the Seminary which he lately eſtabliſhed in this City.

Rome, Aug. 7. The Congregation of the Sacred Rites, which was held a few Days ago in the Pope's Preſence, was compoſed of 17 Cardinals, beſides many Prelates, and others, when the Proofs of the Miracles that have been performed through the Interceſſion of that venerable Lady Maria de Chantal, Foundreſs of the Religious Order of the Viſitation, were fully admitted, ſo that to all Appearance they will ſoon proceed to her Beatification. We have received Advice from Anzio, that the Malteſe Gallies put to Sea on Wedneſday laſt on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pyrates. All the Advices we have received for ſome Days paſt from different Parts of the Eccleſiaſtical State, are full of melancholy Accounts of the great Damage they have received by the late Earthquakes. A few Days ago the Pope cauſed a Bull to be fixed up in different Parts of this City, notifying to the Publick, the Suppreſſion of the Patriarchiate of Aquileja, and the Erection of the the two Archbiſhopricks of Udine and Gorizia, and his Reconciliation relating thereto with the Republick of Venice.

Buda, Aug. 9. On Wedneſday laſt their Imperial Majeſties, accompanied by Prince Charles of Lorrain, arrived at the Camp near Peſt, and were received by a Diſcharge of ſeveral Pieces of Cannon. The next Day the 17 Regiments of Horſe, of which it conſiſts, were drawn up in order of Battle; and their Imperial Majeſties having taken a View of them in Front, retired to a magnificent Tent that was erected for their Reception, when each Regiment filed off and marched by in great Order before them; and then joining again, made a moſt ſurprizing quick running Fire. When this was over their Imperial Majeſties were entertained at Dinner by Prince Lichtenſtein, who commands in Chief the Troops there encamped; and ſeveral of the Nobility and General Officers were admitted to dine at their Table; after which the three Sclavonian Battalions of Foot were drawn up and went through their new Exerciſe with great Dexterity. On Friday and Saturday they reviewed each Regiment ſeparately, and expreſs'd great Satisfaction at their Behaviour and Appearance. And Yeſterday their Imperial Majeſties, accompanied by Prince Charles of Lorrain, and attended by ſeveral of the Nobility and General Officers, came hither to view this City and its Citadel.

Stockholm, Aug. 10. The King has cauſed an Edict to be iſſued, forbidding, under very ſevere Penalties, the Publication of any Books or Papers relating to the imaginary Fears that have been for ſome Time ſpread in Relation to the eſtabliſhing of Arbitrary Power in this Kingdom. We are informed by Letters from the reſpective Provinces, that they have already elected the greateſt Part of the Deputies who are to aſſiſt at the general Diet of the States of this Kingdom, which Elections having been carried on with all poſſible Tranquility, give great Reaſon to believe their Deliberations will be attended with all the Succeſs imaginable.

Vienna, Aug. 14. The young Imperial Family enjoy perfect Health at Schonbrun, from whence the Archduke Joſeph, and the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, propoſed ſetting out as Yeſterday Afternoon or this Morning for Preſbourg, in order to wait there for and receive their Imperial Majeſties on their Return from the Camp at Peſt.

Dreſden, Aug. 15. The Troops encamped in the Neighbourhood of this City conſiſts of 4000 Foot and two Regiments of Horſe, commanded by Field Marſhal Count Rutowſky. On the 5th Inſtant they were reviewed by the King, when they performed all their Evolutions and Firings in his Majeſty's Preſence, who appeared greatly pleaſed with their Appearance and Behaviour. A Committee of the States of this Electorate are to aſſemble here in a ſhort Time, in order to take into Conſideration divers Plans which have laid before the Court for the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Finances. On Tueſday laſt M. Durand, the French Miniſter, had his Audience of Leave of his Majeſty.

Ratisbon, Aug. 16. A few Days ago the Swediſh Miniſter, and a Miniſter from his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, delivered to the Diet of the Empire, the Acts by which his Swediſh Majeſty, as Duke of Pomerania, and the Prince of Orange for the Principality he poſſeſſes in Germany, accede to the general Guarantee the Empire lately gave to the Treaty of Dreſden.

Copenhagen, Aug. 17. The Report that was ſpread ſome Days ago of the Queen's being again with Child, ſeems to be confirmed, and 'tis now ſaid the ſame will ſhortly be declared at Court. A Reſolution has been taken to erect a new Battery of Cannon at Elſenore, and 200 Men are ordered thither from this Garriſon for that Purpoſe. The Dey of Algiers has wrote a Letter to the King, dated the 11th of June laſt, giving him the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of his inviolable Reſolution to maintain the Peace which at preſent ſubſiſts between his Country and the Kingdom of Denmark; and aſſuring his Majeſty, that the Reports which have been ſpread to the contrary have not the leaſt Foundation, and are only propagated by ill deſigning People.

Hambourg, Aug. 17. Field Marſhal Count Lowendahl is expected here from Berlin in a few Days. We are informed by Letters from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark has raiſed M. d'Ahlefeld, Commander of Gluckſtadt, to the Rank of Lieutenant General of Horſe. By our laſt Letters from Poland we have Advice, that a Detachment of the Crown Army had ſurpriſed, in a Wood, a ſmall Body of Heyducks, whom they had entirely defeated. The ſame Letters ſay, that notwithſtanding all the Meaſures that have been taken, in Conjunction with the Ruſſian Troops, to extirpate that Race of common Plunderers, they ſtill continued to commit, from Time to Time, in ſmall Bodies, great Violations in the Poliſh Ukraine, where they have lately pillaged ſeveral Gentlemen's Country Seats, and even ſome Convents.

Hague, Aug. 24. M. Salles, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Lieutenant General Villattes, having been appointed by his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, to the Poſt of Governor of the Fort of St. Michael at Venlo, he this Day took the uſual Oaths before the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes, in order to qualify himſelf for that Employment. His Serene Highneſs has likewiſe diſpoſed of the late General Cronſtrom's Regiment of Foot, in Favour of Major General Holſten. They write from Leyden, that M. Vander Goes, Receiver of the Finances of that City, died lately there; and from Bergen-op-Zoom we have Advice of the Death of Colonel Vye, Director of the Fortifications of this Country.
